PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

14 You shall reside in a residential reentry center for a period of up to 180 days. This placement may include a prerelease component, day reporting, and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring, but not to include GPS) at the directions of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.

CAUSE

William Aills appeared before the Court on February 17, 2009, for his revocation hearing. He was sentenced to 8 months confinement followed by 28 months of supervised release. As part of the defendant's term of supervised release, the Court ordered he complete up to 180 days at a residential reentry center. Mr. Aills entered the Franklin County Residential Reentry Center (RRC) on September 21, 2009. He is scheduled to complete his time on March 19, 2010. At this time Mr. Aills is not entitled to the benefits of the prerelease component while at the RRC.

This officer respectfully recommends the Court modify condition number 14, and provide the defendant the benefit of the prerelease component. Mr. Aills has complied with the rules and regulations of the RRC. Additionally, he obtained full time employment with Washington Potato Company in Pasco, Washington. He has had negative drug tests, has complied with his substance abuse assessment, and has been attending self-help groups. Mr. Aills has also found housing in Pasco, and he has obtained his driver's license and auto insurance. Based on the defendant's compliance and the intended purpose of the RRC, the prerelease component will benefit the defendant transition into the community.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:
